What is Manglik Dosha?

Manglik Dosha occurs in an individual's horoscope when Mars, Sun, Saturn, Rahu, or Ketu are positioned in key houses such as the 1st, 4th, 7th, 8th, or 12th. This dosha is considered especially potent when Mars occupies the ascendant, even more so than when it's placed alongside the Moon in the same position. According to traditional Vedic scriptures, if both the boy and the girl have this dosha and it is neutralized through astrological remedies or natural cancellations, the couple is likely to enjoy a harmonious and prosperous married life. However, if this dosha remains unaddressed, it can lead to avoidable obstacles and issues in the relationship. Hence, it's strongly recommended to have the horoscopes thoroughly analyzed before marriage. Once Manglik dosha is balanced or nullified, the person is believed to enjoy peace, prosperity, and stability in life.

Manglik Dosha Effects

When Mars is situated in the 1st house:

The 1st house represents the house of spouse. Thus it normally affects the married life leading to unnecessary conflicts. It might also lead to physical assault and violence. Due to such unacceptable behavior such a person might suffer from tension, distress, separation or even divorce.

When Mars is situated in the 2nd house:

A person's family life is affected. It also creates obstacles in the married life and the professional life.

When Mars is situated in the 4th house:

This will have adverse effects at the professional front. Such a person will switch jobs and also will not be successful professionally. Financial trouble will keep lurking.

When Mars is situated in the 7th house:

Such a person has too much of energy and will be ill-tempered resulting in not being able to maintain cordial relationship with family members. Also this person will be very dominating and dictating over his or her partner and she/he might also have many partners.

When Mars is in the 8th house:

Such a person will be lazy and will not be able to maintain a rapport with his or her elders and thus will lose paternal property.

When Mars is situated in the 12th house:

Manglik individuals will have enemies. S/he will also suffer from mental problems and financial losses.

What Is Ashtakoot?

Guna Milan is an essential component of Kundli Milan (horoscope matching), but it should not be mistaken as the entire process of match-making. It is, in fact, one of the most significant tools used in Vedic astrology to assess compatibility between two individuals planning to marry. In North India, a traditional and systematic method known as Ashtakoota Milan is widely followed. The term Ashtakoota comes from two Sanskrit words—Ashta meaning “eight” and Koota meaning “aspect” or “category.” Thus, Ashtakoota Milan refers to the matching of eight essential qualities or factors that play a vital role in determining the harmony and success of a marital union. Each of these eight Gunas (qualities) is assigned a specific number of points, totaling a maximum of 36 points. The higher the score obtained through Guna Milan, the greater the compatibility between the couple. Generally, a score of 18 or above out of 36 is considered acceptable for marriage.

What is Dashakoot?

To ensure a harmonious, prosperous, and long-lasting marital life, the ancient sages of India developed a sophisticated system known as Marriage Matching or Match-Making. This system, rooted in Vedic astrology, was designed to assess the compatibility between a prospective bride and groom based on their Birth Stars (Nakshatras). One of the oldest and most respected techniques for compatibility analysis is the Koota Agreement, a structured method that originally included 20 different Kootas (factors). Over time, however, only 10 Kootas came to be widely used for practical purposes, and in many regions of India—especially the South—only 8 are commonly applied. In Tamil astrology, this system is popularly known as '10 Porutham', while in Hindi, it is referred to as 'Das Poritham'.

The ten koota details or Aspects of Dasha koota details are as follows:

Dinam :

Tara or Dina Koota indicates the wellbeing and longevity of the prospective couple.

Ganam :

Gana indicates the mutual behaviors, mental compatibility and temperaments of the prospective bride and groom.

Yoni :

Yoni Koota measures the intimacy levels, sexual compatibility and mutual love of the prospective couple. It matches the sensuous nature and characteristics of both

Rashi :

This represents emotional compatibility of the couple

Rasyadhipati :

This reflects the mental compatibility, affection and natural friendship between the partners. It denotes how inimical the boy and the girl are to each other.

Rajju :

It is considered as the most important of the ten koota details as it ensures a long life for the husband

Vedha :

Vedha means affliction. This koota details agreement wards off all evils and pitfalls in married life

Vashya :

This measures mutual attraction and the degree to which the partners shall be able to influence each other.

Mahendhram :

This shows the impact upon progeny and child-birth issues.

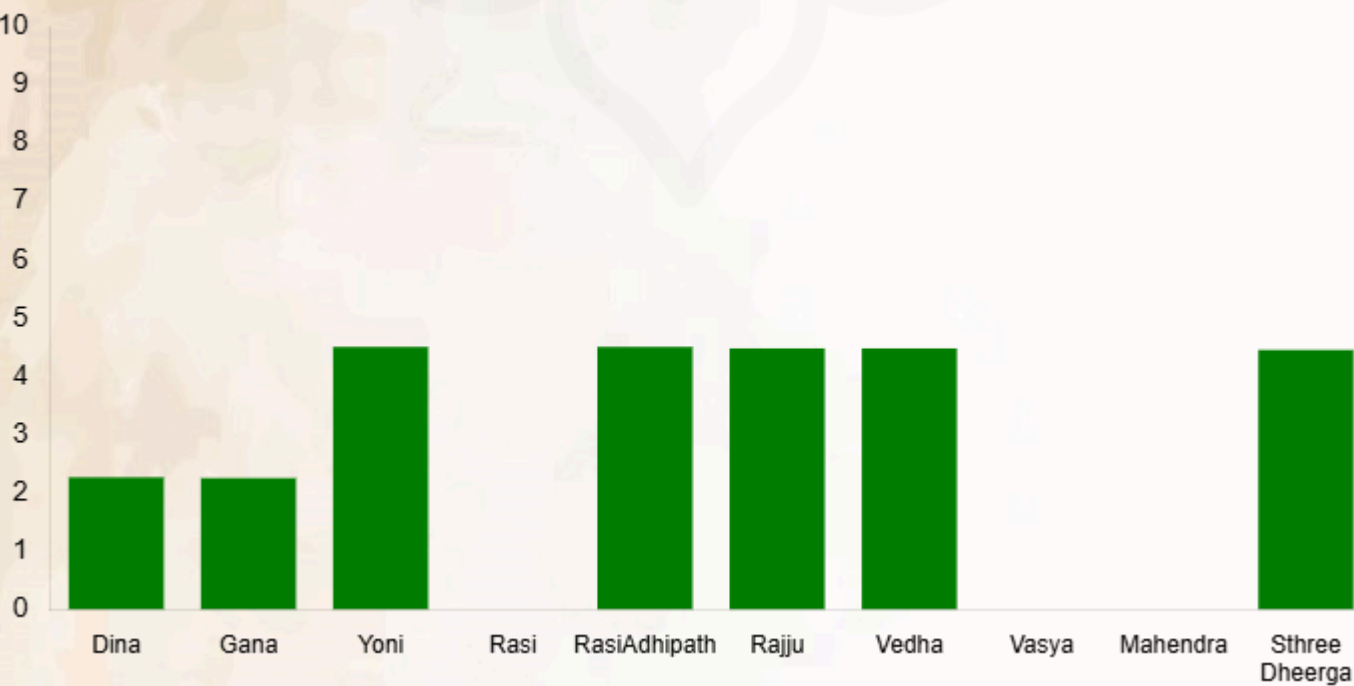

Stree Deergam :

It ensures accumulation of wealth and all round prosperity.

Vedha Details

What Is Vedha Dosha?

The concept known as Vedha, which translates to 'obstruction' in Sanskrit, is a traditional astrological method used to identify whether certain karmic blocks exist between two individuals that may hinder their ability to unite fully in marriage. It is recognized as one of the two major doshas—Maha Doshas, or 'significant flaws'—that can impact relationship harmony. Vedha is analyzed through the Moon's placement in the Nakshatras (lunar constellations) in each person's birth chart. Every Nakshatra has one—or in a few exceptions, two—other Nakshatras with which it shares an obstructive or incompatible energy. If the Moon of one partner resides in a Nakshatra that is naturally obstructive to the other's, it may indicate potential emotional, psychological, or situational challenges in their partnership. This form of dosha suggests that, despite surface-level attraction or good intentions, the relationship may face persistent friction or invisible barriers that prevent complete emotional bonding.

Vedha Dosha Analysis

Not Present

The Nakshatras of male and female do not belong to Vedha Kutir pair and therefore no Vedha dosha.

What Is Bhakoot Dosha?

Bha Kuta is an astrological technique used to evaluate whether a couple has the potential to work harmoniously and build a life together in a constructive and supportive manner. The term Bha refers to the zodiac signs, and this Kuta specifically examines the relative positions of the Moon signs in each partner's horoscope. For optimal compatibility, the Moon signs of the couple should hold a favorable relationship to one another—such as being the same sign, or positioned 7th, 3rd and 11th, or 4th and 10th from each other. When these ideal placements are met, the couple earns the maximum score of seven points under the Bha Kuta system, signifying strong alignment in values, emotional resonance, and shared goals.

Nadi Dosha

What Is Nadi?

According to Ayurveda, the human body is governed by three primary energies or doshas: Vata, Pitta, and Kapha. When any one of these elements becomes imbalanced—such as an excess of Vata—it can lead to health issues. For instance, too much Vata is often linked to problems like high uric acid levels or gout, and consuming Vata-aggravating foods can worsen the condition. Similarly, in Vedic astrology, there are three types of Nadi: Aadi, Madhya, and Antya. Nadi plays a crucial role in Kundli matching as it represents the subtle energy channels of the body. When two individuals have the same Nadi, it is traditionally seen as inauspicious for marriage, as it can indicate genetic or energetic imbalance, particularly concerning health or progeny. On the other hand, if the couple has different Nadis, it is considered favorable and supportive of a healthy and balanced partnership.

What happens if Nadi Dosha exists

If you and your partner have same Nadi you should not marry, this is a rule of matchmaking. But if someone ignore the Nadi Dosha and marry with a person who have same Nadi, issues related to health would be there. You will feel no attraction. You cannot expect your partner will love you a lot. There could be a lack of affection.
